

Career and Technical Education 2018 Summer Conference

The Department of Agricultural Education at the University of Arizona offers 400- and 500-level credit to CTE educators attending and participating in the 2018 ACTE AZ Conference. The course may be used for teacher certification or recertification, or towards an undergraduate or graduate degree. The Department of Agricultural Education offers several options in both the Master of Science and Master of Agricultural Education programs, three (12 – 13 unit) certificate programs, and a 12-unit series of professional development coursework in Career and Technical Education. For more information, please check the website at <http://aed.cals.arizona.edu/academica/grads> or call (520) 621-1523.

Course AED 497g/597g - Instructional Advances in CTE (1 unit) Summer II – July 9, 2018 through August 8, 2018

This course is graded (A, B, C, D, and E). Dr. Robert Torres, Professor, is the instructor of record. He can be contacted at rtorres1@email.arizona.edu, or (520) 621-1523.

For 1 unit, Curriculum requirements include:

- Attend and participate in the conference. Proof of registration is required.
- Develop a summary listing all the conference sessions you attended.
- Construct the Outstanding Lesson Learned Log based on conference sessions and using the form provided by the instructor.
- Read, synthesize, and react to two recent CTE publications pertaining to any of the conference sessions.
- Contracting for additional credit is available.

-  Please submit all information to instructor by August 8, 2018.
-  In order to earn credit in an undergraduate or graduate-level course, you must be admitted into the University of Arizona as either degree seeking or non-degree seeking undergraduate/graduate. Please CHECK the deadlines.
-  For information on how to register, please visit the How to Apply to the UA web site at <http://www.arizona.edu/how-apply-ua>.
-  Cost (Tuition & Fees) for graduate units: 1 unit ($535); 2 units ($1,038); 3 units ($1,542)